

INFORMATION NOTE TO ALL GUESTS

Le Chalet L'ENVALA is not a public place but a guesthouse where a family welcomes you in a spirit of friendliness and simplicity. Respecting one another is therefore privileged above all

Many people come here to rest and enjoy; it is asked to be discreet, mainly after 22h and before 8am. Thank you to plan your showers accordingly.

For sake of keeping the rooms clean and neat for the next guests, we kindly remind you that Bedrooms are nor picnic areas nor areas for consuming soft drinks . Use of alcohol is strictly forbidden while our restaurant license does not allow the sale nor the consumption of alcohol outside the meal time (aperitif, meal, digestive).

An inventory will be done in your presence if any damage is noticed in your room.

Every room is provided with an electric water boiler , a teapot and cups.

L'Envala is also 'Table d'hôtes' meaning we do serve meals – upon 24 hrs advance request- every evening of the week except Thursday and Saturday's . Food is prepared with fresh & quality ingredients and cooked to be served at 19:00 hrs.

There are many restaurants in town and we will be happy to recommend you one if you wish so. Do note, it is not allowed to picnic in the Chalet.

For your and others' security, smoking is strictly prohibited in the Chalet. Ashtrays are at your disposal outside so no need to throw cigarette butts in the garden or in the snow.

Toilets, lavatories are not adapted for clothes washing. If needed, we'll be happy to wash your clothes for a 5€/time.

Please use appropriate make-up remover pads instead of bath ropes or towels.

A cloakroom is available for drying your boots (ski boots etc.), you are invited to leave your big jackets there as well.

You are welcome to bring your own slippers while boots are not allowed in the Chalet.

For environmental reasons, do think of switching off the lights and chargers, to close the windows and reduce heating in your rooms when leaving them. Any surcharge of heat request could stop the installation.

Finally, for your security, the main entry door is equipped with a code lock. You are requested to lock the door upon leaving or entering the Chalet.

We thank you for respecting l'Envala and their guests and hope you enjoy your stay.
